 10 (“Equity Lender”) made a term loan to the Debtors in the aggregate original principal amount of 11 $150,000.

12           c.       As acknowledged by the Debtors, the Loan is secured by all assets of 13 Rawhide and its subsidiaries, including, but not limited to, Accounts, Chattel Paper, Commodity
 14 Contracts, Deposit Accounts, Documents, Equipment, Fixtures, General Intangibles, Goods,

 26 attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

27           B.       Loan Defaults and Forbearance Agreements

28           6.       The Debtors defaulted under the Loan Documents by, among other things, failing

1 to make the cash payment of interest and principal due on March 15, 2022. Upon default,
 2 Silverview delivered to Debtors that certain notice of acceleration dated as of March 24, 2022
 3 (the “Notice of Acceleration”), pursuant to which Silverview notified the Debtors that its secured
 4 obligations are immediately due and payable (including, from and after March 15, 2022, default
 5 interest pursuant to section 21.3 of the Loan Agreement) and demanded immediate payment in 6 the amount of $15,813.577.68.

7       7. As set forth above, beginning in 2022, the Debtors began having cash flow
 8 problems and could not service the Loan.

9       8. On July 19, 2022, the Lender Parties and the Debtors, among others, entered into 10 that certain Forbearance Agreement (the “2022 Forbearance Agreement”) wherein the Lender
 11 Parties agreed to forbear from exercising default-related rights and remedies for a specified period
 12 of time to allow the Debtors to refinance the Loan or sell the Mine. A true and correct copy of 13 the 2022 Forbearance Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

14       9. Ultimately, the forbearance period under the 2022 Forbearance Agreement expired
 15 and the Debtors were unable to obtain refinance the Loan or otherwise repay the Loan.

16       10. On September 15, 2023, the Lender Parties and the Debtors, among others, entered 17 into that certain Forbearance Agreement (the “2023 Forbearance Agreement”) wherein the 18 Lender Parties again agreed to forbear from exercising default-related rights and remedies for a 19 specified period of time to allow the Debtors to refinance the Loan or sell the Mine. A true and 20 correct copy of the 2023 Forbearance Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

21       11. As a condition of effectiveness to the 2023 Forbearance Agreement, the Debtors
 22 agreed to retain a Chief Restructuring Officer acceptable to the Lender Parties to, among other
 23 things, oversee the Debtors’ business and assets and negotiate and consummate a sale of all or 24 substantially all of the Debtors’ assets on terms acceptable to the Lender Parties. See Exhibit 6 at 25 ¶ 6.

26       12. The Lender Parties agreed to continue to provide funding for immediate cash
 27 needs, such as to paying employees and maintaining insurance.

28       13. As set forth in the 2023 Forbearance Agreement, the Debtors stipulated and agreed

1 that the Debtors were indebted to the Lender Parties in the amount of no less than $20,517,613,
 2 along with accruing interest, fees (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees), costs
 3 as of September 11, 2023. Id. at ¶ 3.

4       C.     Mining Operations Ceased, the Appointment of Chief Restructuring Officer,
 5                   and Negotiations with DeJong Capital LLC

6       14.   Upon information and belief, since approximately August 2023, the Debtor has not
 7 been conducting regular mining operation at the Mine and mining operations have essentially 8 ceased.

9       15.   Upon information and belief, once it was clear that the Mine had ceased
 10 operations, the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM") initiated reclamation work at the Mine.

11      16.   Shortly after September 15, 2023, the Debtors retained Eric Camm of Turning 12 Point Strategic Advisors to act as Chief Restructuring Officer.

13      17.   Starting in or about September 15, 2023, Eric Camm oversaw the Debtors'
 14 business and assets and engaged in negotiations to sell substantially all of the Debtors' assets.

15      18.   Beginning in November 2023, the Lender Parties and the Debtors have been 16 negotiating potential out-of-court restructuring transactions with DeJong Capital LLC ("DeJong")
 17 to allow DeJong to either acquire the equity in assets of the Debtors or the equity in Rawhide.

18      19.   Despite numerous communications with the Debtors regarding the out-of-court
 19 restructuring, the Debtors did not discuss the proposed DIP loan or the filing of the Bankruptcy
 20 Cases with the Lender Parties.

21      20.   Additionally, at no point did the Debtors ask the Lender Parties if they would be 22 interested in providing DIP financing.

23      21.   Similarly, at no point did DeJong discuss the proposed DIP loan or the Bankruptcy
 24 Cases with the Lender Parties.

25      22.   As of December 20, 2023, Debtors are indebted to the Lender Parties in the 26 amount of no less than $19,680,043.82, along with accruing interest, fees (including, without 27 limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees), costs, and expenses.

28      23.   Based on the information known to the Lender Parties to date, the Lender Parties

1 believe the current value of the Collateral is less than the current amount outstanding under the
2 Loan. Agent, on behalf of Lender Parties, disputes that the Debtors' proposal adequately protects
3 the Lender Parties. In fact, Agent, on behalf of the Lender Parties, believes that the Lender Parties
4 will be in a materially worse position if the relief sought in the Motion is granted.

5       24. At no point during the discussions with the Debtors or DeJong did the Debtors or 6 DeJong take the position that the value of the Collateral exceeded the amount of debt owed to the 7 Lender Parties.

8       25. During the negotiations, DeJong took the position that Lender Parties would be 9 lucky to receive $5–10 million for the Collateral, and DeJong indicated that the maximum it
10 would pay would be less than 50% of the face value of the Loan to the Lender Parties under any 11 restructuring or refinancing proposal.

12       26. Upon information and belief, on or about mid-December 2023, the Debtors
13 received and are holding an insurance check from Zurich Insurance in the approximate amount of 14 over $210,000 on account of the Debtors' business interruption claim.

15       27. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the 16 foregoing is true and correct.

17                     DATED this 27th day of December 2023.
